

FOLLOW THE PROPHET

(Ether chapter 6-7)

Mahonri the prophet,
Said don't have a king.
Because of the bondage
It would surely bring.
Well, they did not listen
Chose one anyway,
That choice brought them trouble
Starting on that day!

Shule was not a prophet
But liked what they said
He said "do not mock them,
Or you'll wish you were dead."
The kingdom all repented
Of all of their sins
And saw like God promised
That's where joy begins!

Snakes began to bite them
And it hurt a lot.
So the people said,
“Let’s repent before we rot!”
(They finally...)

When people choose the right
God always send them peace
When they become wicked
It always seems to cease.
Ether taught a lot
Of real important things
Never become naughty
And don’t you follow kings!
(Instead just...)

Aren’t you sick of singing
This really silly song?
Hope you got the message:
“Remember to be strong.”
Strength will come from choosing
To trust in the Lord,
Keeping His commandments
And studying His word.
(Remember!...)
President Nelson is our prophet
He spoke the other day.
Said to get the Spirit
Is the only way to make it through these last days

of temptation and sin.
By following the prophet
We're guaranteed to win!
(And so we'll...)
