Pres. Russell M. Nelson

“We are each responsible for our individual spiritual growth.”

Oct 2018 General Conference

Come Follow Me

“The purpose of the scriptures is to help you come unto Christ and become more deeply converted to His gospel.”

Pres. Russell M. Nelson

“The development of faith in the Lord is an individual matter. Repentance is also an individual matter. Only as an individual can one be baptized and receive the Holy Ghost. Each of us is born individually; likewise, each of us is “born again” individually. Salvation is an individual matter.”

(“Salvation and Exaltation,” GC April 2008)

As we study the scriptures to come unto Christ we will be helped by his grace to see and understand things we couldn't on our own.

Callings Programs

Elder David A. Bednar

“We should not expect the Church as an organization to teach or tell us everything we need to know and do to become devoted disciples and endure valiantly to the end. Rather, our personal responsibility is to learn what we should learn, to live as we know we should live, and to become who the Master would have us become. And our homes are the ultimate setting for learning, living, and becoming.”

(“Prepared to Obtain Every Needful Thing,” GC April 2019).

Elder Boyd K. Packer

“For His own reasons, the Lord provides answers... with pieces placed here and there throughout the scriptures. We are to find them; we are to earn them. In that way sacred things are hidden from the insincere.”

(“The Mystery of Life,” GC October 1983)

Elder Jeffrey R. Holland

“...read more slowly and more carefully and with more questions in mind. ...ponder, [and] examine every word, every scriptural gem.

“...hold it up to the light and turn it, look and see what’s reflected and refracted there. For some [of us] on a given day with a given need, such an examination may unearth a treasure hidden in a field, a pearl of great price, a pearl beyond price.”

(CES videoconference, 20 June 1992, videocassette).

Gospel Topics: Testimony

Testimony grows gradually through experiences. No one receives a complete testimony all at once. It grows as individuals show willingness to serve in the Church and to study, pray, and learn. It increases as individuals obey God's commandments. Testimony grows as it is shared.

THE ACTS 26:28-27:18

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.
29 And Paul said, I would that not only thou, but also all men here and together such as I hear me this day, were boys and altogether such as I am, except I were a man.
30 And when he had thus said, the king rose up, and the chief men of the city, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:
31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doth persuade the people, that he is worthy of death or of liberty, if he had not said "Caesar."
CHAPTER 27

Paul, in a perilous voyage, travels to Rome—An angel comes to him—He uses the gift of sermons—He is shipwrecked.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, the centurion delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.
2 And entering into a ship of Adria-myttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one called Pachelonius, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.
3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.
7 And when we had sailed slowly

Overview

Welcome to the Scripture Citation Index. This index, found on the right side of your browser window, links from scriptures to the general conference talks, Journal of Discourses speeches, and writings in Teachings of the Prophet Joseph Smith that cite those scriptures. So, for example, suppose you want to know who has cited 1 Ne. 3:7 in general conference; tap on the First Nephi button followed by the 1 Ne. 3 button; there you'll find the answer. Who has quoted Matt. 5:48? Use the New Testament index to find out.

The panel on the left side of your browser lets you read the scriptures, including the King James Version and Joseph Smith Translation of the Bible, the Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, and the Pearl of Great Price. This is not the official version of the standard works. Go to ChurchOfJesusChrist.org/study/scriptures for the official publication of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Among the differences between this version and the Church's official version are that we do not include their footnotes, chapter summaries, and study helps such as the Bible Dictionary and Topical Guide.

Description

"If [the Bible] be translated incorrectly, and there is a scholar on the earth who professes to be a Christian, and he can translate it any better than King James's translators did it, he is under obligation to do so, or the curse is upon him. If I understood Greek and Hebrew as some may profess to do, and I knew the Bible was not correctly translated, I should feel myself bound by the law of justice to the inhabitants of the earth to translate that which is incorrect and give it just as it was spoken anciently. Is that proper? Yes, I would be under obligation" (Brigham Young, "Remarks," Deseret Evening News, 2 September 1871, 2) This new translation renders the New Testament text into modern English and is sensitive to Latter-day Saint beliefs and practices. This translation is readable and accessible for a wider range of readers than the King James

President Mark L. Pace

Sunday School General President

“To be most effective, your experiences with the scriptures must be your own. Reading or hearing about another person’s experiences and insights can be helpful, but that won’t bring the same converting power. There is no substitute for the time you spend in the scriptures, hearing the Holy Ghost speak directly to you.”

GC April 2022

What is the Holy Ghost teaching me this week as I read these chapters?

Blessings... if we tried our best to “transform our homes into sanctuaries of faith and centers of gospel learning”:

1. YOUR Sabbath days will be a delight,
2. YOUR children will be excited to learn and live the Savior’s teachings,
3. The influence of the adversary in YOUR life and in YOUR home will decrease, and
4. These changes in YOUR family will be dramatic and sustaining.

Pres. Russell M. Nelson in the October 2018 General Conference
